Editorial Foreword

The present work is one of two manuals that have been prepared in collaboration by Mrs. Rowland and Mrs. Smith. The plans for both manuals have followed along similar lines. The introductory pages are made up in the main from the teachers' books in each course.

After a short series of General Orders of Service come Special Orders of Service, one only for the Cradle Roll in the manual for teachers of beginners, and two each for Thanksgiving, Christmas, Easter, Mother's Day, Missions, and Promotion Day. The manual for primary teachers does not contain a special for cradle roll, but has three each for those mentioned above, with an addition of two on temperance and three on missions.

All of the music in the teachers' quarterly parts has been retained in the same order and numbering as originally published, with much additional music, the shorter pieces being inserted in the text, the rest indicated numerically. The musical selections will be found varied, particularly pleasing, and within the range of children's voices. A few extra pieces of music not included in the Orders of Service will afford opportunity for choice, if desired. The Round Tables and list of Musical and Teachers' Helps have been prepared especially for each of the two manuals.

The arrangement of recitations and music need not be literally followed: the several Orders of Service may be easily changed or adapted to any particular occasion; or may form a basis of fresh programs at the option of teachers, with omissions or additions as may be desired.

The editor takes pleasure in saying that these manuals are the product of painstaking and conscientious effort on the part of the authors, whose wide experience as practical teachers has given them such appreciation of the needs of their coworkers in the departments as to render the work especially valuable.

PRIMARY COURSE

The Primary Graded Lessons aim to bring the little children into touch with the evidences of our heavenly Father's care, the expression of the feeling of gratitude and thanksgiving thus inspired, and of God's great love for us as shown in the gift of his Son—Jesus Christ.

From these stories the child should gain clear impressions of mother and child-love, parental care mirrored in the life of the birds and animals; the child in whom the mother-love and God-love meet, the promptings of the human heart in view of God's care, and God's heart-promptings in view of our needs.

With this combination we create spiritual atmospheres where the unfolding life of the little child finds its truest spirit-nurture. With our timely help the child's religious instincts are changed into insight; the feelings are stimulated and directed into proper channels of activity, thus increasing the natural power of right seeing, thinking, and doing.

Program Suggestions

The most helpful things are those that inspire teachers to help themselves. The given outline of a general working plan will simplify for the teacher the arrangement of special programs adapted to changes of topics, seasons, and special days. Special songs and verses that are suggested will give opportunity for personal choice and adaptation of program material to special groups of children.

The primary program should be simple, informal, and elastic. Changes should be made when necessary to give variety or adapt to the conditions above mentioned. There is a divine order and sequence of thought in program work that is vital in all teaching. Spontaneity in action, song, and story is desirable in teacher and program. The program supplies, in large part, the child's spiritual atmosphere, music being its chief element. Teach the songs by using them frequently, artistically, as a musical form of thought illustration; avoid formal drill.

Arrange all plans and accessories before the session. Let each assistant understand the general plan and her special part. Calmness and quietness should characterize all conditions of the work as being vital to interest and impression. Inspire each child to do his or her part, and demonstrate the beauty of unity in action. In program construction the child's need is the law of the teacher's supplies.

Concerning Promotion Day

The last Sunday in September is preferred with Graded Lessons.

The pupils should be promoted while teachers remain in a grade department.

A public service is desirable, to which parents and friends are invited.

Decorations in elementary colors (green and white) are appropriate.

An exhibit of pupils' work should be arranged.

In all cases leaders should state to the audience that the program is built upon the lessons taught during the year.

Certificates may be given from grade to grade, and a diploma tied with ribbon upon promotion from a department.

Teachers can use the whole or part of each program, according to the size of the class.

Age, ability, development, and a reasonable amount of grade work accomplished should be considered in promoting pupils.

If promotion occurs on Children's Day, the summer work is important, and should be continued through September, so that the work of a new grade may begin with October.

It is suggested that the music should be taught to the children through the year as part of their weekly work, a little at a time, and not be left to a short time before promotion.

The object in the programs for promotion is to found them on lessons of the year that will not conflict with the programs for special seasons. The program on "Father's Care" can be readily adapted by the teacher for Promotion Day.

FATHER'S CARE •

Music. "God in Heaven, Hear Our Singing." No. 14.

All. O Jehovah, thou art our Father.

Prayer.

Recitation.

Great, wide, wonderful, beautiful world,
With the wonderful water about you curled,
And the wonderful grass upon your breast;
World, you are beautifully dressed.

The wonderful air is over me,
The wonderful wind is shaking the tree;
It walks on the water, and turns the mills,
And talks to itself on the tops of the hills.

Recitation.

I saw the different things you did,
But always you yourself you hid;
I felt you push; I heard you call;
I could not see yourself at all.
O wind, a-blowing all day long!
O wind, that sings so loud a song!

Recitation.

God, who made both you and me,
Sends the wind we cannot see,
Though we hear it blow and sing;
God takes care of everything.

Sunbeams dancing all around,
Raindrops falling to the ground,
Wind that blows, and nests that swing—
God takes care of everything.

Everything on earth that lives,
Each and all God's care receives;
Thanks and praise to him we sing;
God takes care of everything.

Father, mother, babies dear,
All the children everywhere;
Thanks and praise we'll sweetly sing,
God takes care of everything.

—M. C. B.

Recitation.

I'm only a little sparrow, A bird of low degree; My life is of little value, But the dear Lord cares for me.	Though small, we are not forgotten; Though weak, we are not afraid; For we know that the dear Lord keepeth The life of the creatures he made.
---	--

I know there are many sparrows, All over the world we're found; But our heavenly Father knoweth When one of us falls to the ground.	And I fold my wings at twilight, Wherever I happen to be; For the Father is always watching, And no harm will come to me.
--	--

Recitation.

Round about us, like the sunshine,
Is our heavenly Father's care;
Warming, brightening, helping, blessing;
God himself is everywhere.

In the daylight, in the darkness,
We will trust our Father's care;
O'er his children safe watch keeping;
God himself is everywhere.

Recitation.

God is near me all the day, In my work, and in my play, Loving me in every way; He cares for me.	God is near me all the night, When the stars are shining bright, Keeps me safe till morning light; He cares for me.
---	--

God is near me when I pray,
Hearing every word I say;
I will love him and obey;
He cares for me.

Teacher. Who took care of the little King Joash, who was hidden away for many years?

Sing second verse, "God Took Care of the Baby." No. 73.

Prayer.

P R I M A R Y T E A C H E R S ' M A N U A L

Teacher. If I take the wings of the morning,
And dwell in the uttermost parts of the sea;
Even there shall thy hand lead me,
And thy right hand shall hold me.

Recitation.
How strong and sweet my Father's care,
That round about me, like the air,
Is with me always, everywhere!
He cares for me.

Teacher. Do you remember about the long journey the children of Israel took?

All. The heavenly Father was with them in the pillar of cloud and fire.

Recitation.

See the cloudy pillar	Through the darkness shining,
Coming from above,	See it onward move,
Telling of our Father's care,	Calling, "Follow, children,
Saying, "God is love."	Follow; God is love."

Class. "What time I am afraid I will put my trust in thee."

Teacher. When Jacob went on a lonely journey, God sent him a beautiful dream, and said to him:

Class. "I am with thee, and will keep thee whithersoever thou goest."

Music. "Night and Day." No. 23.

Recitation.
God with us, wherever we are,
God with us, by night and by day,
God with us, whatever we do,
God with us, to help us always.

Prayer.

Heavenly Father, hear me pray;	Heavenly Father, I will raise
Be thou near me every day,	Happy songs of grateful praise;
Helping me in every way.	Loving, serving, all my days.

No fish swimming in the sea;
No lambs playing in the meadow;
Think how this would be.

Second child. Shining little raindrops
Make the silver showers;
Sparkling on the window,
Sprinkling thirsty flowers.
Dancing on the housetops,
Falling down below,
Giving life to all things,
Everywhere you go. —M. C. B.

Eat, for it is good;
Thank the Father for his gift of love.

Recitation for one or for two children.

Praise God for wheat, so white and sweet,
 Of which to make our bread;
 Praise God for yellow corn, with which
 His waiting world is fed;
 Praise God for fish, and flesh, and fowl
 He gave to men for food;
 Praise God for every creature that
 He made, and called it good.

Praise God for winter's store of ice,
 Praise God for summer's heat;
 Praise God for fruit trees bearing seed;
 To you it is for meat.

Praise God for all the bounty
 By which the world is fed;
 Praise God, ye children all, to whom
 He gives your daily bread.

—Pinafore Palace.

 And back of the flour the mill;

Our Father, who art in heaven, hal - lowed be thy name.

 And forgive us our debts, as we for - give our debtors.
 For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, for ever, A - men.

Teacher. Why should children give thanks?

(Teacher give summary of Genesis 6.)

I thank thee, Lord, for food and drink,

I thank thee for thy loving care
Around me day and night.

The Bread of Life to hungry souls,
That they through him might live.

Second boy. "David said unto Saul. Thy servant was keeping his father's sheep; and when there came a lion or a bear, and took a lamb out of the flock, I went out after him, and smote him, and delivered it out of his mouth; and when he arose against me, I caught him by his beard, and smote him and slew him."

Music. "Lux Eoi." No. 57.

Recitation. (Finger play.)

This is the meadow where all the day long,
 Ten little frolicsome lambs are at play.

These are the measures the good farmer brings
 Salt in, and corn meal, and other good things.

This is the lambkin's own big water-trough;
 "Drink, little lambkins, and then scamper off."

These are the big shears to shear the old sheep;
 Dear little lambkins their soft wool may keep.

This is the rack where in winter they feed;
Hay makes a very good dinner indeed.

Here, with its big double doors shut so tight,
This is the barn where they all sleep at night.

—Emilie Poulson.

Recitation.

Creeping here, creeping there,
Comes the green grass growing;
Food for sheep, food for lambs,
Ere the winter snowing.

Raining here, raining there,
In the brown earth sinking,
Water pure, water clear,
Everywhere for drinking.

Here a stone, there a stone,
Working all together,
Build a fold for the sheep,
Ere the stormy weather.

Day is gone, night is come,
Darkness round it falling;
Lovingly, tenderly,
Hear the shepherd calling.

Calling here, calling there,
" Sheep-O! Sheep-O! Sheep-O! "
In the fold, safe from cold,
Little lambs may sleep, O!

Lambs and sheep fast asleep;
Comes the soft night creeping;
Overhead, o'er their bed,
Stars their bright watch keeping.

—M. C. B.

(Have a bright boy give short account of David and the giant, as taught in Lesson I, bringing out the idea of courage.)

Teacher. Was David always a shepherd boy?

Class. God chose David to be King of Israel.

Music. "The Lord is My Shepherd." No. 13.

Teacher. Who is our Shepherd?

First child. (Jesus said) "I am the good shepherd; the good shepherd layeth down his life for the sheep."

Second child. "The sheep hear his voice; and he calleth his own sheep by name, and leadeth them out."

Third child. "When he hath put forth all his own, he goeth before them, and the sheep follow him, for they know his voice."

Fourth child. "He will feed his flock like a shepherd; he will gather the lambs in his arms, and carry them in his bosom."

P R I M A R Y T E A C H E R S ' M A N U A L

(Teacher will explain that while David greatly feared his king, as shown in Lesson II, we need have no fear of our King.)

First child.        Young David greatly feared the king;
                          He asked the Lord in prayer
                          To keep him safely from all harm,
                          In his strong, loving care.

Second child.        I'm thinking of One,
                          So gentle and kind,
                          That even a child need not fear him;
                          He came from above
                          To teach us to love;
                          He helps everyone who comes near him.

Third child.        Hear, O Father; hear our prayer;
                          Bless the children of thy care,
                          Everywhere, everywhere,
                          When awake or sleeping,
                          In the dark or in the light,
                          In thy ever-watchful sight,
                          Every day, every night,
                          In thy holy keeping.

Music. "He Shall Lead Us." No. 3.

First child.        The Lord is my Shepherd, and I am his lamb,
                          His strong arm my shelter shall be;
                          On his loving breast I safely may rest;
                          My Jesus, he loveth me.

Second child.        What a friend I have in Jesus!
                          He is gentle, kind, and good;
                          Everything I need he gives me,
                          Home and friends and daily food.

                          Jesus loved me ere I knew him;
                          I his little lamb would be,
                          In his tender care enfolded,
                          Loving him, who first loved me!                    —M. C. B.

Closing prayer. Thanking the heavenly Father for our Shepherd.

CHRISTMAS

First Year

Program outline. The baby Jesus in a manger; visit of the wise men; the baby Jesus saved from danger; as found in Lessons XII, XIII, XIV.

Music. "In Winter." No. 69.

Prayer.

Teacher. Whose birthday do we celebrate in December?

Class. We celebrate the birthday of our Lord Jesus Christ.

Teacher. When was Jesus Christ born?

Class. Our Lord Jesus Christ was born over nineteen hundred years ago.

Teacher. Who was the mother of Jesus?

Class. The mother of Jesus was named Mary.

Teacher. Where did his parents go, as was the custom in those days?

Class. Joseph and Mary went to Bethlehem to be taxed.

Teacher. Where did they seek a sleeping-place, and where was Jesus born?

Recitation.

The inn was full at Bethlehem;
A busy crowd was there;
And some were rich, and some were wise,
And some were young and fair;
But who or what they were that day
There is not one to care;
But in the cattle's manger
There lay a baby Stranger;
Soft-nestled, like a snow-white dove,
Among the scented hay.

Music. "O Little Town of Bethlehem." No. 67.

Teacher. While the baby Jesus lay in the manger, what occurred?

Class. "There were shepherds in the same country, abiding in the field, keeping watch by night over their flock. And an angel of the Lord stood by them, and the glory of the Lord shone round about them; and they were sore afraid."

Recitation.

Oh, what a beautiful day it was,
 That Christmas day, so long ago,
 Though there wasn't a single Christmas tree,
 Nor even one little drift of snow,
 In the far-off land of Palestine,
 The land where the olive and fig tree grow.
 But out in the fields that blessed night
 The sheep lay sleeping, peaceful and still,
 And the shepherds sat by their quiet flocks
 And watched, while over a distant hill
 One star in the east shone marvelous, bright,
 Seeming the very heavens to fill.
 It was the angels sang that night,
 And the lowly shepherds, wondering, heard;
 They saw above them the glorious light,
 And then, with many a whispered word,
 They left their flock asleep on the hill,
 And wandered to where the city stirred.
 And what did they see when they reached the place?
 A hillside stable, a rude ox-stall,
 A fair young mother whose saintly face
 Bent over her baby; and that was all.

—The Independent.

Recitation.

And lo! through him was given
 Our song to earth and heaven,
 The song two worlds together sing upon a Christmas day:
 "Glory to God; Good will to men!"
 Oh, listen! Wake it once again!
 "Peace upon earth! Good will to men!"

Music. "In the Field with Their Flocks Abiding," No. 12; or "While Stars of Christmas Shine," No. 28.

Teacher. Who afterward came to see Jesus?

Recitation.

Lo, travelers enter Bethlehem's gate,
 Arrived from some far distant land;
 They seem to be of high estate,
 And hold rich presents in their hand.

They swiftly pass from street to street,
 Nor need they fear to go astray,
 Nor need they ask the men they meet,
 To guide them on their unknown way.

For see, there shines a beauteous star;
 On it they fix their joyful eyes;
 That heavenly guide has led them far,
 And now it lightens Bethlehem's skies.

But lo, it stops—its course is done;
 On Mary's roof it sheds a light;
 Enter; there dwells God's blessed Son—
 Enter; enjoy the glorious sight.

But where is he, the Lord of all,
 Who made the heavens, and earth, and seas?
 Behold him there, an infant small,
 Lying upon his mother's knees.

Their Lord full well the strangers know,
 And humbly worship at his feet;
 Joyful their golden treasures show,
 And give their precious spices sweet. —Psalm of Day.

Teacher. When Herod told the wise men to seek Jesus, and then come and tell him, did they do it?

Class. The wise men did not return; for God warned them in a dream not to return to Herod.

Teacher. When Herod saw that he was mocked of the wise men, what did he do?

Class. "Herod sent forth, and slew all the male children that were in Bethlehem from two years old and younger."

Teacher. How was Jesus saved?

Class. "An angel of the Lord appeared to Joseph in a dream, saying, Arise and take the young child and his mother, and flee into Egypt, and be thou there until I tell thee, for Herod will seek the young child to destroy him."

Teacher. How long did Jesus remain in Egypt?

Class. "When Herod was dead, an angel of the Lord appeared in a dream to Joseph in Egypt, saying, Arise and take the young child and his mother, and go into the land of Israel."

Teacher. Jesus lived in Nazareth until he was a young man.

Recitation.      The moon shone bright that Christmas night,
                             And silvered all around;
 The air was cold, and crisp the snow
                             That covered thick the ground.

                            And while the bells from here and there
                             Were pealing forth their chime,
 The world seemed bright, and all delight
                             In the glad Christmastime.

A little maid had crossed my path,      "I'll go within the great church door,
     And oh! so poorly clad;                      As you go bravely in,
 But then I knew 'twas more than cold      And hide behind the pillar there.
     That made her face so sad.                      Hark! now they say, 'Begin.'"

                            And then she sank to hide her rags,
                             While music filled the place,
 And happy children, as they sang,
                             Saw not the tear-stained face.

The song, so sweet, told of a Child                      And as she heard the story sweet,
     That in a manger came;                              She took it all within,
 It was the Babe of Bethlehem,                      And said, "O Babe of Bethlehem, Whom angels did acclaim.                              Be thou my kith and kin."

                            And with that thought the world seemed bright,
                             For this some way she knew,
 That those who love the Lamb of God,
                             Would love poor children too.      —Mary Hayes Rood.

Teacher. Are we only to think of the gifts that we receive?

Recitation.      What does Christmas mean to you,
                             My pretty lass with eyes so blue?
                             A doll, a book, a ribbon, a ring,
                             That this day of gifts is going to bring?
                             A feast, with games and song and fun,
                             Where you are ever the foremost one?
                             A time when all is merry and gay—
                             Is this the meaning of Christmas Day?

                            What does Christmas mean to you,
                             My frank-faced lad, with brow so true?
                             A holiday full of gifts and toys,
                             And jolly fun with the other boys?

A frolic the freest of all the year,
 A table heaped with the best of cheer,
 And skating, or snow, or hearty play—
 Is this the meaning of Christmas Day?

Ah, bright are the hours of this happy time,
 And gay is the ring of the Christmas chime,
 Yet through it all must whisper still,
 "Glory to God, to men good will."
 And in every heart of girl or boy
 Must be the holy Christmas joy
 Before we can gladly and truly say,
 "I have learned the meaning of Christmas Day."

Recitation.

E'er since the great stars' shining,
 E'er since the angels' singing,
 E'er since the wise men's seeking
 Of "Bethlehem's cradle throne,"
 O'er all the wide, wide world
 "The love of God hath shone."

Music. "The Children's Hymn."

Recitation.

A little child with beaming eye
Was to the temple brought,
Where holy men before the Lord

This is the Father's sign. —Adeline Beery.

LEGEND OF SAINT CHRISTOPHER

Teacher or Assistant. Once upon a time there was a giant named Offerus. He was large and strong, and lived alone near a big river. Offerus determined to live on the bank and carry people over, for the river was wide and deep. He pulled up a big palm tree, and when anyone wanted to cross he took it in his hand, put the person on his shoulders, and waded over.

One stormy night he wakened from his sleep, thinking that a child was calling him. "Offerus! Offerus! Carry me over! Carry me over!" He went outside of his hut but could not see anyone. A second time he wakened and heard the same cry. Again he went out but could not see anyone. No sooner had he gone to sleep than he heard the third time the child say: "Offerus! Offerus! Carry me over! Carry me over!"

Then he lighted his lantern and hunted up and down the banks until he found a little child in the dark and rain, who said plaintively: "Offerus!

Offerus! Carry me over." He lifted the child on his shoulders, and stepped into the water, holding the palm tree. But the child grew heavier and heavier, and the strong giant feared that he would sink. He held tightly to the palm tree, and when he reached the other side he gently put the child down and said: "Who art thou, child? If I had carried the whole world on my shoulders it would not have been heavier."

The child answered, "To-night thou hast carried over the Christ-Child. In helping the weak thou hast helped me. Thou shalt be called Christofferus, which means the 'Christ-bearer.'"

Then the Christ-Child slipped away, and though the weather was wintry and cold, as Christopher leaned upon the tree it took root and bore leaves and ripe dates on its branches.

Recitation.

Gentle, holy Jesus,
Saviour meek and mild;
Thou, who once wast fashioned
Like a little child;

And in grace and meekness
Up to manhood grew;
Sharing human weakness,
Human sorrow too.

In thy word so holy,
Saviour, we can see,
That of us thou sayest,
"Let them come to me."

Glad we come and render
All we have to give;
While our hearts are tender,
Help us, Lord, to live."

—Emma Whitfield.

Class. "Thou shalt call his name Jesus, for it is he that shall save his people from their sins."

Prayer.

With joyful voice we praise Thee;
For his lowly birth, and his rest in the manger,
For the pure tenderness of his mother, Mary,
For the fatherly care that protected him,
For the Providence that saved the holy Child
To be the Saviour of the world.

—Henry Van Dyke.

Prayer.

Teacher.

For He saith to the snow,
Fall thou on the earth;
Likewise to the shower of rain.
Out of the chamber of the south cometh the storm,
And cold out of the north.
By the breath of God, ice is given.

Music. "Waiting to Grow." No. 4.

Recitation.

The warm wind blows,
The water flows,
The green grass grows.

The sunbeams bright
Fill earth with light;
A pleasant sight!

The raindrops fall
On great and small;
Glad life for all.

Before our eyes,
The flowers rise
In still surprise.

Bright birds on wing,
So gaily sing,
'Tis spring! 'Tis spring!

The sky bends blue,
The world looks new,
God's love is true.

—M. C. B.

Music. "A Flower Song for Children." No. 37.

Recitation.

In the spring the flowers awaken,
Waken from their winter's sleep;
They say to us, "Look up, dear children,

—Primary and Junior Songs.

Recitation.

Brave and bold Sir Robin Redbreast
Came to town one day,
Dressed up in a vest of scarlet
And a coat of gray.
Bold Sir Robin chirped quite gaily,
He was proud, you see,
For there was no other birdie
Dressed so well as he.

"How I wish the flowers would waken,
They are late this spring;
I will call them," and Sir Robin
Loudly starts to sing:
"Blossoms! Blossoms! You are lazy!
Don't you know 'tis spring?
Wake up, flowers, and see my red vest—
Such a pretty thing."

Just then Robin heard a purring.
"Gracious! what is that?
If I am not much mistaken,
It sounds like a cat."
Bold Sir Robin ceased his singing,
Flew to treetop nigh;
Even there he was quite frightened—
Cats can climb so high.

How he wished his dress of scarlet
Were of duller tone,
So the cat could not espy him
In the treetop lone!

Trembling, fearing, watching, peering,
On the bough he sat;
How his little neck he twisted
Looking for that cat.

Suddenly he hears beneath him
Peals of laughter gay,
And some soft and gentle voices
Cry in merry way:
"Robin, oh, you foolish Robin!
Come, oh, come and sing,
We are only pussy-willows
Waking up the spring."

—Mary Canney.

Teacher. Tell simply the story of Jesus' death, burial, and resurrection, as found in John 19 : 30, 41, 42; 20 : 1-18.

Class. (Jesus said) "Behold, I am alive forevermore."

Teacher. "He led them out until they were over against Bethany; and he lifted up his hands and blessed them. And it came to pass, while he blessed them, he parted from them, and was carried up into heaven."

Recitation.

Birds sing their songs in the leafy bowers;
The bees are hovering above the flowers;
The life of spring makes glad the hours,
Loud let the children sing!

For life is given to the bird and bee,
But a higher life to you and me;
Then shout for joy! life's beauty see;
'Tis the gift of God, our King.

Prayer.

Thus to the love of God in heaven,
The God who made both you and me;
The praise of all things here is given,
And evermore shall be.

Music. "Fairest Lord Jesus." No. 29.

Prayer.

Recitation.

Down in the earth seeds and flowers are sleeping,
Sleeping sound, in the ground;
Down from the sky comes the winter wind sweeping,
All around, all around.
Sweet be thy flower-dreams; rest awhile longer;
Soft, the snow; white, the snow;
Wake by and by, when the sunbeams are stronger,
You will grow! you will grow! —M. C. B.

First child. Hark! The March wind sweeping down from the skies, Calling, "Arise, blossoms, arise;
On hills and meadows the warm sunshine lies;
Rise, little blossoms, rise!
Rise, for the snow is fast melting away;
Rise, for the bluebird is flying this way;
Rise, Easter voices are calling to-day;
Rise, little blossoms, rise!" —M. C. B.

Second child. Tiny seed-babies are down in the earth,
Hiding below;
God's rain and sunshine will soon give them birth,
Then they will grow.
Fast they are coming, coming with spring,
Dear growing things!
Butterflies rise when the lily-bells ring,
Spread their bright wings.

Third child. "Do you think I am dead," the brown bulb said,
Because I have not a leaf to show?
Just cover me over with warm brown earth,
Then with sun to shine and wind to blow,
I'll show you how a bulb will grow."

Music. "Christ Lives." No. 6.

Class. (Jesus said) "Because I live, ye shall live also."

Second child. "Jesus uttered a loud voice, and gave up the ghost."

Third child. "Then came Joseph of Arimathea, and asked for the body of Jesus; and he bought a linen cloth, and taking him down, wrapped him in the linen cloth, and laid him in a tomb which had been hewn out of a rock."

Recitation.

On Easter Day
I'm happier far than any queen or king;
Glad Easter Day;
The world looks everywhere so bright and gay,
The birds fly overhead on joyous wing
And seem a thankful little song to sing
For Easter Day.

On Easter Day
The sun shines warm, the wind blows soft and slow;
Dear Easter Day;
Mamma says the white lilies seem to pray,
And that when I can understand and know
I'll even gladder be, when old I grow,
On Easter Day.

Class. "I have given you an example, that ye also should do as I have done to you."

Teacher. What does this teach?

Music. "An Every-day Song." No. 32.

Recitation.

"Share with me; oh, share with me!"
To the flower said the bee.
Said the flower to the bee,
"I will share with thee;
Here's my cup; oh, take a sup!"
To the bee she held it up;
"Honey there, and to spare;
Share, O brother, share!"

Recitation.

Keep your smile pinned on!
Keep your smile pinned on!
It may give another cheer;
It may soothe another's fear.

Recitation.

When God calls, all the pretty flowers	When God calls me, though but a child,
They hasten to obey,	With my whole heart I'll say,
And swiftly rise, to make the earth	"Help me to live and make my life
More sweet for Easter Day.	One long, bright Easter Day."

Teacher. What did Jesus tell us in John 13 : 34?

Class. "A new commandment I give unto you, that ye love one another even as I have loved you; that ye also love one another."

Teacher. (Explain the Last Supper, leading up to the fact that the disciples were troubled when Jesus said that he was going away; closing with the question, what words of comfort did Jesus give the disciples?)

Music. "Let not your heart be troubled."

H. H. C.

Allegro.

Let not your heart..... be troub - led,..... ye be - lieve in God, be - lieve al - so in me.

Recitation.

But the supper soon was ended,
 And the Lord was led away
 By a band of cruel soldiers,
 From the rulers sent that day.

To the high priest he is taken;
 Before Pilate he must wait—
 Then upon a cross they lift him,
 Just outside the city gate.

Joseph's rock-hewn tomb received him,
 But he triumphed o'er his foes;
 Lo! he burst the tomb asunder,
 And in majesty arose.

Recitation.

Sing with exulting breath,
For Christ hath won the victory;
Behold, now grim Death
He conquers gloriously.
In the dark tomb he lay,
For three days held in prison,
But the stone rolls away,
And Christ the Lord is risen.

Teacher. Who saw Jesus on the first Easter Day?

Class. Mary Magdalene, two men at Emmaus, Peter, the disciples, and other people who were together in Jerusalem.

Teacher. Who saw Jesus after that first day?

Class. No one saw him excepting his friends.

Teacher. What is the message of Easter?

Music. "Easter Hymn." No. 55.

Teacher. Where was the last place to which Jesus went with the disciples?

Class. Jesus and his disciples went to a mountain called Olivet, near Jerusalem.

Teacher. What was Jesus' last commandment?

Class. "Go ye into all the world and preach the gospel to the whole creation."

Teacher. Why was Jesus anxious that everyone should be told about him?

Class. Because he loved everyone just as he did his own people.

Music. "I Will Praise Thee." No. 59.

Recitation.

I must do all the good I can,
To all the people I can,
At all the times I can,
In all the places I can,
In all the ways I can.

Closing prayer. Lord Jesus, we want to tell the story too. Though we are now too young to go far away, we want to do all we can right where we are, and to help send out missionaries who are ready to go. We ask thee to bless all those who are telling the good news to-day.

MOTHER'S DAY

First Year

Music. "He Careth for Me." No. 5.

Prayer.

Teacher. (Read Matthew 2 : 13-15, 19-23, or explain the reason for the flight into Egypt.)

Music. "When Little Samuel Woke." (First and last verses.) No. 47.

Recitation.           It was only a very little lad,
                           One small boy with ten older brothers,
                           Yet he was the dearest child Jacob had,
                           For he loved his father more than the others.

Recitation.       Oh, that every child here may remember each day,
                       Whether clouds come, or sunshine, whatever the weather,
                       To be good sons and daughters in every way,
                       Whenever they're playing or working together.

Music. "Honor thy father and thy mother."

Dr. WOODWARD.

The musical score is written for a four-part setting (Soprano, Alto, Tenor, Bass) in G major (one sharp) and 4/4 time. The lyrics are: "Honour thy father and thy mother, that thy days may be long upon the land which Je- ho - vah thy God..... giveth thee." The score features a mix of chords and moving lines, with a prominent tenor line in the second system.

Teacher. "Children, obey your parents in the Lord; for this is right."

Recitation.

My mother, she's so good to me,
If I was good as I could be,
I couldn't be as good. No, sir;
Can't anybody be so good as her!

She loves me when I'm glad or mad,
She loves me when I'm good or bad.
An' what's the funniest thing, she says
She loves me when she punishes.

I don't like her to punish me;
That don't hurt, but it hurts to see
Her cry. Nen I cry, an' nen
We both cry—an' be good again.

She loves me when she cuts an' sews
My little coat and Sunday clothes.
An' what's the funniest thing, she says
She loves me when she punishes.

She laughs and tells pa all I said,
An' grabs me up an' pats my head,
An' I hug her an' hug my pa,
An' love him purt' nigh as much as ma.

—James Whitcomb Riley.

Recitation.

Three little boys talked together
One sunny summer day,
And I leaned out of the window
To hear what they had to say.

"The prettiest thing I ever saw,"
Said the second little lad,
Was a pony at a circus—
I wanted him awful bad."

"The prettiest thing I ever saw,"
One of the little boys said,
"Was a bird in grandpa's garden,
All black and white and red."

"I think," said a third little fellow,
With a grave and gentle grace,
"That the prettiest thing in all the world
Is just my mother's face."

Music. "All Things Whatsoever." No. 7.

Recitation. (For five children.)

First child.

There's always work in plenty for little hands to do,
Something waiting every day that none may try but you;
Little burdens you may lift, happy steps that you can take,
Heavy hearts that you may comfort for the blessed Saviour's sake.

Second child.

There's room for children's service in this busy world of ours;
We need them as we need the birds, and need the summer flowers;
And their help at task and toiling the church of God may claim,
And gather little flowers in Jesus' holy name.

Third child.

There are words for little lips, sweetest words of hope and cheer;
They will have the spell of music for many a tired ear;
Don't you wish your gentle words might lead some soul to look above,
Finding rest and peace and guidance in the dear Redeemer's love?

Fourth child.

There are orders meant for you, swift and jubilant they ring;
Oh, the bliss of being trusted on the errands of the King!
Fearless march in royal service; not an evil can befall
Those who do the gracious bidding, hasting at the Master's call.

Fifth child.

There are songs which children only are glad enough to sing,
Songs that are as full of sunshine as the sunniest hours of spring.
Won't you sing them till our sorrows seem the easier to bear,
As we see how safe we're sheltered in our blessed Saviour's care?

Music. "Jesus, Teach Me." No. 53.

Closing prayer.

God, our loving Father,
Hear us while we pray;
Help us to obey thee
In all we do and say.

Second Year

Program outline. Samuel bringing God's message to a boy in Bethlehem; the boy Jesus visits Jerusalem; Jesus and the children; as found in Lessons X, XVI, XXI.

Music. "When the Earth Wakes Up in Gladness." No. 21.

Prayer.

Class. "I will hear what God Jehovah will speak."

Recitation.

It was only a shepherd lad, long ago,
With flocks to tend and yet songs to sing,
Humbly each day with the herds to go,
Yet God meant him for Israel's great king.

Oh, that every child here may remember each day,
Whether clouds come, or sunshine, whatever the weather,
Humbly to walk on life's daily way,
Whenever they're playing or working together.

Scripture reading. (By teacher or class: Luke 2 : 41-46, 48, 51. Teacher will bring out the thought of the mother's anxiety; and though Jesus was God's Son, he was subject to his mother and obeyed her.)

Recitation.

As our Saviour Jesus,	He shall be our copy;
When a little child,	We will try to be
Gentle was, and holy,	Patient and obedient,
Pure and meek and mild;	Loving, kind as he.

Music. "My Saviour Dear." No. 48.

Teacher. When Jesus entered upon his ministry, did he love little children?

Class. "Then there were brought unto him little children, that he should lay his hands on them and pray. Jesus said: Suffer the little children, and forbid them not to come unto me; for to such belongeth the kingdom of heaven."

Recitation.

When Jesus lived in Judea,
And sat beside the sea,
He took the little children
And held them on his knee.

They told him all their troubles,
And he watched them at their plays,
He told them wondrous stories,
In the old, old days.

Recitation.

There is no sweeter story told
In all the blessed book,
Than how the Lord within his arms
The little children took.

And closer to his loving self
Our human hearts are brought,
When for the little children's sake,
Love's sweetest spell is wrought.

For their young eyes his sorrowing face
A smile of gladness wore,
A smile that for his little ones,
It weareth evermore.

Music. "Jesus, Saviour, Son of God."

F. A. G. OUSELEY.

1. Je - sus, Sav - iour, Son of God, Who for me life's path-way trod,
2. I thy lit - tle lamb would be, Je - sus, I would fol - low thee;
3. Teach me how to pray to thee, Make me whol - ly heav - en - ly;

Who for me be - came a child, Make me hum - ble, meek, and mild.
Sam - uel was thy child of old, Take me, too, with - in thy fold.
Let me love what thou dost love, Let me live with thee a - bove.

Teacher. How did Jesus show loving care for his mother when he was on the cross?

Class. "When Jesus saw his mother, and the disciple standing by whom he loved, he saith unto his mother: Woman, behold thy son! Then saith he to the disciple, Behold thy mother! And from that hour, the disciple took her unto his own home."

Recitation.

Who sat and watched my head,	When pain and sickness made me cry,
When sleeping on my cradle-bed,	Who gazed upon my heavy eye,
And tears of sweet affection shed?	And wept for fear that I should die?
My mother.	My mother.

Who ran to lift me when I fell,
And would some pretty story tell,
Or kiss the place to make it well?
My mother.

Who taught my infant lips to pray,	And can I ever cease to be
And love God's holy book and day,	Affectionate and kind to thee,
And walk in wisdom's pleasant way?	Who was so very kind to me,
My mother.	My mother?

Ah, no! the thought I cannot bear,
And if God please my life to spare,
I hope I shall reward thy care,
My mother.

—Peep of Day.

Closing Prayer.

Jesus, friend of little children,
Be a friend to me;
Take my hand and ever keep me
Close to thee.

Teach me how to grow in goodness,
Daily as I grow;
Thou hast been a child, and surely
Thou dost know.

—Songs for Little People.

Third Year

Program outline. A sorrowing mother made glad; as found in Lesson XLIV.

Teacher. Welcome, welcome, happy children,
To our pleasant class to-day;
Here we meet to praise our Father,
Here we come to sing and pray.

Music. "God is Ever Good." No. 61.

Prayer.

Recitation.

We are told in olden story Of a woman kind and good; She was careful of the prophet, Gave Elisha rest and food.	"I've one great longing," said she; "To my heart I'd love to press My own baby round and rosy, With a mother's tenderness."
--	--

And one day he called her to him, Thanked her for her care and love, Then asked her what she most desired From the Father dear, above.	So Elisha prayed the Father; And in answer from above Came a little son to cheer her, Bringing sunshine, joy, and love.
---	--

Recitation.

There are blessings from God all around us;
We should thank him for gifts large and small,
But his gift of a dear little baby
Needs the very best "thank you" of all.

Music. "Bye, Baby, Bye," No. 51; or "A Happy Little Home," No. 54.

Recitation.

Up on a hill so straight and still, The pine stands in the breeze, And sings and sings among the trees Murmuring and whispering high aloft The minor chorus of the croft— A songing, wistful, sleepful song.	Its babies stand about its feet, Guarded from rainstorm and from heat, While mother pine tree all day long Keeps sighing, singing, soft and low, "Grow, little pinelings, grow!" —E. S. Goodhue.
---	---

Class. "When the child was grown, it fell on a day that he went out to his father to the reapers."

Assistant teacher.

A Shunammite in Israel dwelt;
Her name we do not know.
But sweet the story is to-day,
Though happening long ago.

When sought, Elisha came from far,
And triumphed over death,
For, by the power of God, he gave
The dead boy life and breath.

One day, her boy, the gift of heaven,
Smitten with heat, was led
From harvest-field to prophet's room,
And laid upon his bed.

The glad words came, "Take up thy son,"
The mother, filled with joy,
Caught to her arms, alive again,
Her saved and darling boy.

Music. "Rejoice in the Lord."

H. H. C.

Re - - joice in the Lord, O ye right - eous, for praise is come - ly, is come - ly for the up - right.

Old Testament promises of comfort. (Recited by the children.)

"Comfort ye, comfort ye my people, saith your God."

"As one whom his mother comforteth, so will I comfort you."

"Sing, O heavens; and be joyful, O earth; and break forth into singing, O mountains: for Jehovah hath comforted his people."

"Like as a father pitieth his children, so Jehovah pitieth them that fear him."

New Testament promises of comfort. (By the children.)

Jesus said: "I will pray the Father, and he shall give you another Comforter, that he may be with you forever."

Music. "Father, thou art good and kind."

K. H. R.

Reverently.

Fa - ther, thou art good and kind To ev - 'ry lit - tle child; Come

Ritard and accent. Reverently.

thou, and stay with us we pray, Mak - ing us kind and mild. A - men.

Teacher. Oh, Jesus loves you, children;      He watches when you're sleeping,
 He helps you now to grow;      He hears you when you call;
 He wants you to be loving,      Yes, Jesus loves you, children,
 Because he loves you so.      Knows and loves you all.

—M. C. B.

Recitation.

Be ready for work,	Be ready to stand,	Be ready to dare,
Be ready for play;	Be ready to start;	Be ready to do;
Be ready to praise,	Be ready of hand,	Be ready to serve,
Be ready to pray.	Be ready of heart.	Be loving and true.

—M. C. B.

Teacher. To-day we joyfully greet our mothers. All honor to the loving, comforting mothers, who make our homes and lives happy.

Recitation.

So here's to the white carnation,	Flower of perfect sweetness,
Wear it on Mother's Day;	Flower for hut and hall,
Flower that blooms for mother,	Here's to the white carnation,
Winsome, gallant, and gay.	And to mother—our best of all.

Music. "Home, Sweet Home." No. 70.

—Margaret E. Sangster.

TEMPERANCE

Second Year

Program outline. The right use of God's gifts; the house in which I live; the story of the Rechabites; as found in Lessons V, of first year, and XLVI, XLVII, XLVIII, second year.

Music. "Thou Knowest That I Love Thee." No. 33.

Prayer.

Class. "Every good gift and every perfect gift is from above."

Teacher. Recall the good gifts of God: water, food; the right use of apples, wheat, grapes, corn.

Recitation.

Take an ear of yellow corn, and then rub, rub, rub,
Till the kernels rattle off from the nub, nub, nub;
Then put them in a popper made of wire, wire, wire,
And put the little popper o'er the fire, fire, fire;
When you find them getting lively, give a shake, shake, shake,
And a very pretty clatter they will make, make, make;
When the popper gets too full, you may know, know, know,
That the fire has changed your corn into snow, snow, snow;
Turn the snow into a dish, for it's done, done, done,
Now pass it 'round and eat, for that's fun, fun, fun.

Recitation. (Teacher will show apple-seed while a child recites.)

I know a little brown wonder-box,
That only opens when the south wind knocks.
It holds a thousand leaves folded tight;
It holds a thousand blossoms pink and white;
It holds a tree with branches complete,
And fruit that is golden, juicy, and sweet;
And all the fruit holds, tightly packed down,
More and more boxes tiny and brown.

Recitation.

'Tis God our heavenly Father
Who makes each little seed,
And puts away within it
The tiny plant we need.

And then he leaves us our part,
To seek that plant within,
So when we add our work to his,
We find what is therein.

Man plows the field and scatters
The wheat-seed all around,
But 'tis God who sends the sunlight
And rain upon the ground.

He sends the rain and sunshine,
To help to make our bread,
And when we add our work to his
The hungry can be fed.

—Summy & Co.

Teacher. Thou visitest the earth, and waterest it,
Thou greatly enrichest it;
The river of God is full of water:
Thou providest them grain, when thou hast
So prepared the earth."

All. "While the earth remaineth, seedtime and harvest, and cold and heat, and summer and winter, and day and night shall not cease."

Recitation.

Plant the seed in the earth,
Sun and rain give it birth:
Up it comes, like a horn;
Soon the blade greets the morn;
Climbs the stalk toward the sky.
Tassels now we may spy;
On the stalk forms the ear,
Food for all growing here;
Corn for food, some for seed;
God gives corn for our need.

—M. C. B.

Recitation.

Back of the loaf is the snowy flour,
And back of the flour is the mill,
And back of the mill is the wheat and the shower,
And the sun and the Father's will.

Teacher. "Whether ye eat, or drink, or whatsoever ye do, do all to the glory of God."

Class.

Father, we thank thee for our food;
'Tis by thy hand we all are fed;
As each new day our wants return,
Give us, O Lord, our daily bread.

—M. C. B.

Music. "Brightly Gleams Our Banner." No. 50.

Recitation.

We have a part in God's great plan,
So let us do the best we can,
To guard our hearts and lives so well
That only right in them shall dwell.

Let all we touch and hear and see,
Help us each day more pure to be;
It pleases him when we are strong
To choose the right and shun the wrong.

There are many kinds of sin;
We need to pray for strength to win;
To watch the gates and take good care
That nothing harmful enters there.

Teacher. (Read the pledge of the Rechabites:) "I set before the sons of the house of the Rechabites bowls full of wine, and cups; and I said unto them, Drink ye wine. But they said, We will drink no wine; for Jonadab, the son of Rechab, our father, commanded us, saying, Ye shall drink no wine, neither ye, nor your sons, forever. And we have obeyed the voice of Jonadab the son of Rechab, our father, all our days, we, our wives, our sons, and our daughters."

Recitation.

More of good than we can tell;
More to buy with, more to sell;
More of comfort, less of care;
More to eat, and more to wear;
Happier homes with faces brighter;
All our burdens rendered lighter;
Conscience clean and minds much stronger;
Debts much shorter, purses longer;
Hopes that drive away all sorrow;
And something laid up for to-morrow.

—The Amethyst.

Recitation.

Somebody asked me to take a drink;
What did I tell him? What do you think?
I told him—No.

Somebody asked me one day to play
A game of cards—and what did I say?
I told him—No.

“If sinners entice thee, consent thou not,”
My Bible said, and so on the spot
I told him—No.

Recitation.

It is time to be brave, it is time to be true,
It is time to be finding the things you can do;
It is time to put by the dream and the sigh,
And work for the cause that is holy and high.
It is time to be kind, it is time to be sweet,
To be scattering roses for somebody's feet;
It is time to be sowing, it is time to be growing,
It is time for the flowers of life to be blowing.

Music. “My soul, be on thy guard.”

Closing prayer.

When I am tempted to do wrong,
Make me steadfast, wise, and strong;
And when all alone I stand,
Shield me with Thy mighty hand,
Teach me to be pure and true,
Show me what I ought to do.

"He causeth the grass to grow for the cattle, and herbs for the service of man; that he may bring forth fruit out of the earth."

"Out of the ground made Jehovah God to grow every tree that is pleasant to the sight and good for food."

"Consider the ravens, that they sow not, neither reap, which have no store-chamber nor barn; and God feedeth them."

Recitation.

Teacher. What say the joyous birds,
Warbling in glee?
Hark to their cheerful words:
"Water for me!"

All. Water, pure water, fresh, sparkling, and gushing!

Boys. Water for me!

Girls. Water for me!

Teacher. What says the tiny flower, Unfolding every hour,
Silvered with dew, Beauties to view?

All. Water, pure water, fresh, sparkling, and gushing!

Boys. Water for me!

Girls. Water for me!

Teacher. What say the girls and boys
Ruddy and fair?
"Give us pure, healthy joys
Found only there."

Music. "Water Drinkers." No. 45.

Exercise. (From Proverbs 23.)

Boys. Who hath woe?

Girls. "Woe unto him that giveth his neighbor drink."

Boys. Who hath sorrow?

Girls. "They that tarry long at the wine."

All. "Look not thou upon the wine when it is red; when it sparkleth in the cup. At the last it biteth like a serpent and stingeth like an adder."

Teacher. (A fable.)

A mouse fell into a beer vat, and a cat passing by saw the struggling little creature. The mouse said to the cat, "Help me out of my difficulty."

"If I do, I shall eat you," said the cat.

"Very well," said the mouse, "I would rather be eaten by a decent cat than be drowned in such terrible stuff as this."

It was a sensible cat, and said: "I shall certainly eat you, and you must promise on your word of honor that I may do so."

"Very well, then; I will give you a solemn promise."

So the cat fished the mouse out, and, trusting to the promise, dropped it for an instant. The mouse darted away, and crept into a corner where the cat could not get him.

"But didn't you promise me that I might eat you?" said puss.

"Yes, I did," replied the mouse. "But didn't you know that when I made that promise I was in liquor?"

Recitation.

Perchance some fable, but more truth
Lurks in this story of a youth
Who, living in a cabin rude,
Hard by a lonely solitude,
Let in a lion's cub one day,
That from its dam had strayed away.

A pretty pet, and playful quite,
It frisked and gamboled with delight;
From the boy's hand it often fed,
And slept beside him in his bed,
Patting his cheek with velvet paws,
Not yet aware that they held claws.

Fed well each day with wholesome food,
The cub grew fast to lionhood.
One day on provocation slight,
It turned with all a lion's might,
And slew the boy; then from the door,
His body to a jungle bore,

And in a cruel, angry mood,
Devoured the friend that gave him food.
For every guileless, thoughtless youth
This story hath a wholesome truth.
Guard well your hearts, and let not in
The weakest vice, the smallest sin;

For evil ways and habits wrong
Soon rival wild beasts fierce and strong,
When, like a vagrant gipsy race,
They make young hearts their camping-place.
They tear their victims and destroy,
As the grown lion tore the boy.

Teacher. " King Nebuchadnezzar ordered brought before him youths in whom there was no blemish, and who would have ability to stand in the king's palace, and learn the tongue of the Chaldeans. And the king appointed for them a daily portion of the king's dainties, and of the wine which he drank, and that they should be nourished three years; that at the end thereof they should stand before the king."

Class. " But Daniel purposed in his heart that he would not defile himself with the king's dainties nor with the wine which he drank."

Teacher. "The keeper said unto Daniel, I fear my lord the king, who hath appointed your food and your drink: for why should he see your faces worse looking than the youths that are of your own age?"

Boys. "Then said Daniel to the steward, Prove thy servants, I beseech thee, ten days; and let them give us pulse to eat, and water to drink. Then let our countenances be looked upon before thee."

Teacher. "At the end of ten days their countenances appeared fairer, and they were fatter in flesh than all the youths that did eat of the king's dainties. So the steward took away their dainties, and wine that they should drink, and gave them pulse."

Recitation.

It was a true man among cruel men,
Who before the king so bravely stood;
And was thrust into that dreadful lions' den,
Because he dared to be brave and good.

Oh, that every child here may remember each day,
Whether clouds come or sunshine, whatever the weather,
To be brave though lions stand in the way,
Whenever they're playing or working together.

Recitation.

God gave me this good body
To grow both strong and tall;
Whatever harms my body
I will not use at all.
Like brave Daniel in the story,
I'll do all things for God's glory,
And every day I'll watch and pray,
Lord, keep me pure and strong always.

Music. "Dare to Be a Daniel." No. 60.

Recitation.

All that's great and good is done
Just by patient trying.
If you have tried and have not won,
Never stop for crying.

Though young birds in flying fall,
Still their wings grow stronger;
And the next time they can keep
Up a little longer.

Though the sturdy oak has known
Many a blast that bowed her,
It has risen and has grown
Loftier and prouder.

If by easy work you beat,
Who the more will prize you?
Gaining victory by defeat,
That's the test that tries you!

Music. "Yield Not to Temptation." No. 35.

Recitation.

Habit at first is but a silken thread,
Fine as the light-winged gossamers that sway
In the warm sunbeams of a summer's day;
A shallow streamlet, rippling o'er its bed;
A tiny sapling ere its roots are spread;
A yet unhardened thorn upon the spray;
A lion's cub, that has not scented prey;
A little smiling child, obedient led.

Beware! That thread may bind thee as a chain;
That streamlet gather to a fatal sea;
That sapling spread into a gnarled tree;
That thorn, grown hard, may wound and give thee pain;
That playful cub, his murderous fangs reveal;
That child, a giant, crush thee with his heel.

Recitation.

Three bands of little children	For they were little soldiers,
Together marched along;	Enlisted each to fight
Their banners floated in the breeze,	Against the foe, "King Alcohol,"
Their lips were gay with song.	And conquer if they might.

They all were zealous in the cause,
They knew no "can't" nor "fail";
To them there were no direful foes
Before whom they might quail.

Oh, may they never lose their zeal	To gather to the temperance fold
For this great cause of ours;	Those who have gone astray,
And when to men and women grown,	And lead the little ones to choose
May they use all their powers	In life the better way.

All.

I am only one,
But I am one;
I cannot do everything,
But I can do something;
And what I can do I ought to do;
And what I ought to do,
By the grace of God
I will do.

MISSIONS

First Year

Program outline. The baby Jesus in a manger; visit of the wise men; a hungry woman sharing her bread; God's gift to the world; as found in Lessons XII, XIII, XLII, LI.

Teacher. "O Lord, open thou my lips;"

Class. "And my mouth shall show forth thy praise."

Music. "Joy to the World, the Lord is Come." No. 72.

Prayer of thanksgiving for Jesus, the Saviour of the world.

Teacher. Sometime after Jesus was born in Bethlehem, who came to worship him, bringing gifts?

Class. Wise men from the East.

Recitation.

First child.

What gifts shall we bring
To the King of kings?
They must be of the brightest and best.

Like those of the wise men of old,
Bring your treasures of gold,
That his blessing on each one may rest.

Second child.

I'll give my heart to Jesus,
In childhood's tender spring,
I know that he will not despise
So small an offering.

Third child.

I'll give my mind to Jesus,
And seek in thoughtful hours
His Spirit's grace to use for him
Its early opening powers.

Fourth child.

I'll give my strength to Jesus,
Of foot and hand and will;
Run where he sends, and ever strive
His pleasure to fulfil.

Fifth child.

I'll give my time to Jesus;
Oh, that each hour might be Filled up with holy love for him
Who spent his life for me.

Sixth child.

I'll give my wealth to Jesus;
'Tis little I possess;
But all I am, and all I have,
Dear Lord, accept and bless.

Teacher. Why should we bring gifts to Jesus?

Class. "God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth on him should not perish but have eternal life."

P R I M A R Y T E A C H E R S ' M A N U A L

Music. "Baby Jesus." No. 44.

Teacher. An example for us to follow in sharing with others is found in the story of the widow and Elijah. (Tell story of Lesson XLII.)

Recitation.

A stranger cometh to my door,	A welcome warm I give to thee,
That standeth open wide;	My bread with thee I'll share;
His hand in mine I quickly take;	Thou art a friend; perhaps thou art
Come, stranger, step inside;	An angel unaware.

Recitation. (Acrostic for seven children; each child holding a letter.)

"Silver and gold have I none; but what I have that give I thee" (Acts 3 : 6).

"He that giveth, let him do it with liberality" (Rom. 12 : 8).

"And he will give thee the desires of thy heart" (Ps. 37 : 4).

"Remember the words of the Lord Jesus, that he himself said, It is more blessed to give than to receive" (Acts 20 : 35).

"I was hungry, and ye gave me to eat" (Matt. 25 : 35).

"No good thing will he withhold from them that walk uprightly" (Ps. 84 : 11).

"God loveth a cheerful giver" (2 Cor. 9 : 7).

Music. "Little Givers." No. 65.

Recitation.

If I had heaps of yellow corn, And fields of waving wheat, I'd quickly send a cargo where They've not enough to eat; I'd load a ship myself alone With food of every kind, And make my harvest offering The best that I could find. Or if I had just money, That too would do much good, For it should go to India To buy the children food.	'Twas little Rob who said these words So generous and so bold, What he would do when he was rich, He very often told. But, oh, this self-same little boy, When he had dimes to spend, Bought something for himself alone— Had none to give or lend. It seems to me, if Rob expects To be a generous man, He'd better practise when he's small By giving what he can.

Music. "The Sweet Story of Old." No. 58.

Closing prayer.

There are many, many children, With that number may we be, Who obey and love the Saviour, And at last his face shall see.	Blessed Saviour, hear my prayer, Let thy love be everywhere; May little ones from sea to sea Learn of heaven and come to thee.

Second Year

Program outline. God's messengers to Abraham; Samuel bringing God's message to a boy of Bethlehem; helpers chosen and sent out; helpers of Jesus carrying forward his work; needs of children the wide world over; as found in Lessons IX, X, XX, XXXI to XXXIV, XXXV to XXXIX.

Music. "Missionary Chant."

1. Ye Christian chil-dren rise and sing, A chant of praise to Christ your King,
 2. The sins of all he glad-ly bare, The children have his ten-d'rest care,
 3. May we our off'rings glad-ly bring To spread the news of Christ our King,

Till dis-tant lands shall join the song, And all the world be freed from wrong.
 And those who nev - er heard his name He loves for ev - er - more the same.
 Till ev-'ry child shall hear the call And crown the Saviour Lord of all.

Prayer.

Teacher. "Behold, I send my messenger, and he shall prepare the way."

Class. "How beautiful upon the mountains are the feet of him that bringeth good tidings."

Teacher. Whom does God choose as his messengers?

Class. Those whom he can trust.

Teacher. What answer should always be given to God's call for messengers?

Class. "Speak, Lord, for thy servant heareth." "I will hear what God the Lord will speak."

Recitation.

When a king would send a message,
 How fast the carriers ride!
 Through darksome wood, through torrent,
 Whether good or ill betide;
 No pleasure can entice them,
 No fleeting joy beguiles,
 On, swiftly on, by day, by night,
 On, on, for weary miles.

If a messenger should tarry,
 Should a servant idly wait,
 For fear, or love, or pleasure,
 Outside the palace gate;
 If the king upon the feast-day
 Should miss a well-loved one,
 How, think you, would he fare
 Who should have bid him come?

Kings' messengers should hasten,
 Kings' servants must be wise;
 Then loiter not, nor dally,
 When God bids you arise;
 For men grow weary waiting
 For the servants who should bring
 To their weary, sad, and longing hearts
 A message from the King.

—Golden Rule.

Music. "We've a Story to Tell to the Nations." No. 34.

Teacher. May children too carry God's messages?

Recitation.

What can little children do
 For those who are lost in sin?
 How can they enter the "open gates"
 To carry the message in?

Our little feet are too small to march
 In step with the mighty throng,
 But is there no work we can do for the King?
 For our love is true and strong.

To everyone he has given a part,
 And this is the children's share:
 To willingly give of their own to the Lord,
 And send it forth with a prayer.

Recitation.

Our hands are so small, And our words are so weak, We cannot teach others; How then shall we seek To work for the Lord in his harvest?	We'll work by our prayers, By the offerings we bring, By small self-denials— The least little thing May work for the Lord in his harvest,
--	---

Until, by and by,
As the years pass at length,
We too may be reapers,
And go forth in strength
To work for our Lord in his harvest.

Teacher. Before Jesus left the world he appointed apostles to be his messengers, and said to them: "Ye are the light of the world."

Recitation.

The world is still in need of light.
Dark places need the radiance bright
Of faith and love, with heavenly glory,
And all who know shall haste to tell
The tidings glad they know so well,
The old, old, loving, tender story.
The little lights, the children too,
Before they have great things to do,
Must do their little share of duty.

No hand too small to bear a light,
To make earth's darkened places bright
With beams of love and duty.
A hundred tapers lifted high
Will give more light, both far and nigh,
Than one large lamp in shining;
So light the tapers, let them burn,
And every child take one in turn,
Their beauteous rays combining.

(First group, with candles.)

1. Faith.

I carry the light of Faith.
Christ, who gives it, can keep it bright;
Faith will shine in the darkest night;
I carry the light of Faith.

2. Love.

I carry the light of Love;
I light my taper from Faith's bright ray,
And all through life it will light the way;
I carry the light of Love.

3. Hope.

I carry the light of Hope;
I light my candle at Love's bright flame,
And day and night it will shine the same;
I carry the light of Hope.

4. Joy. I carry the light of Joy;
 Hope will kindle my taper small,
 I hold it high that it may not fall;
 I carry the light of Joy.

5. Peace. I carry the light of Peace;
 Joy burns first, and its blaze I touch
 And kindle Peace, which is loved so much;
 I carry the light of Peace.

6. Patience. Patience is what I bear;
 I light my candle from gentle Peace.
 The flame burns on. It must not cease;
 Patience is what I bear.

Music. "Little lights are shining."

Jesus died to set thee free.
I bring you my little light.
5. South America. South America still pleads,
Light, more light, for sorest needs.
Peace responds. Peace will shine, though storm-clouds rise.
Turn to God, the only-wise.
I bring you my little light.
6. Mexico. Mexico repeats the plea:
"Send the Light of Life to me!"
Patience responds. Though the night be dark and long,
Patient wait; let hope be strong.

Music. "My Whisper Song." No. 20.

Teacher. What was Jesus' last command to his disciples?

Class. "Go ye into all the world and preach the gospel to the whole creation."

Teacher. Go, ye, messengers of God!
Like the beams of morning fly;
Preach the love of Christ to all,
Wave the gospel banner high.

Music. "Speed Away." No. 43.

MISSIONS

Third Year

Program outline. A shepherd boy and a giant; David's mighty men; two messengers of Jesus doing God's will; three heroes; as found in Lessons I, V, XXX to XXXIX, L.

Music. "Missionary Processional." No. 62.

Prayer.

Teacher. Why was David, the shepherd boy, not afraid of Goliath, the giant?

Class. "I will fear no evil, for thou art with me."

Teacher. To what nation did Goliath belong?

Class. Goliath was a Philistine, a nation that worshiped idols.

Teacher. What are idols?

Recitation. (With motions.)

Idols are the work of men's hands.
They have mouths, but they speak not;
Eyes have they, but they see not;
They have ears, but they hear not;
Noses have they, but they smell not;
They have hands, but they handle not;
Feet have they, but they walk not;
Neither speak they through their throat.
They that make them shall be like unto them;
Yea, everyone that trusteth in them.

Teacher. Are there those in the world to-day who worship idols?

Class. Yes; all heathen nations worship idols.

Recitation.

Far off in heathen countries
The little children pray
To gods that cannot save them,
Of wood, or stone, or clay.
In happy Christian countries
We learn to bow the knee
To Father, Son, and Spirit,
The blessed One in Three.

O God, our gracious Father,
In thy Son's name we pray,
Send forth thy Christian heroes
To hasten the glad day
When of thy love the knowledge
Shall spread from shore to shore,
And those of every nation
Shall thy great name adore.
—Children's World.

Recitation.

Here in this happy land we have the light
Shining from God's own word free, pure, and bright.
Shall we not send to them Bibles to read,
Teachers, and preachers, and all that they need?

Recitation.

Kind friends, we are glad that you've come here to-day,
And if you will listen to what we shall say,
You will not be surprised that we children delight
To labor for Jesus, our Master.

Far over the ocean, so far, far away,
To where the bright sunbeams roll on with the day,
And across to the East, where the poor heathen stay,
There is work to be done for the Master.

To the north, where the icy mountains appear,
To the rock-bound capes of the south hemisphere,
To the hearts of all heathendom, distant and near,
We must send the good news of the Master.

They ask for our offerings, they ask for our prayers,
They ask that the light of the gospel be theirs,
They ask that with Jesus they may be made heirs,
Joint heirs, with Jesus, our Master.

Then we'll cheerfully answer to all the demands
That are made for the labor of our weak hands,
For we know our Father in readiness stands
To bless our work for the Master.

Teacher. We have heard of those who are doing work for the Master in far-away lands; these missionaries are working in our place; our offerings send and keep them. Often they suffer persecution, as did the three Hebrew children in the fiery furnace, and because of their faithfulness we call them "Heroes of the Cross."

Music. "Dare to Do Right." No. 36.

Recitation.

There was a little Hindu girl,
She was about so tall (measuring),
Each morning she had rice to eat,
But did not eat it all.

Oh, no! She took a little out,
About so much, I think (holding out hand),
And gave it to a wooden god
That could not eat nor drink.

She laid it down before his face,
And said a little prayer (clasping hands);
The idol could not see nor hear,
For her he did not care.

She did the very best she knew,
'Twas what her mother taught her;
She thought the idol, old and grim,
Could help her little daughter.

I want that little Hindu girl
To love our Lord in glory (looking up),
And I'll do all I can to help
Send her "the old, old story."

Teacher. The chief work of our missionaries is to tell the story of Jesus' love to those who do not know him, as did Peter, and Paul, and the other apostles who, though persecuted, beaten, and imprisoned, did not fear to preach and teach in his name. (Give incidents illustrative of missionary heroism in the lives of such men as David Livingstone, Adoniram Judson, John G. Paton, Marcus Whitman, John Eliot. See "Heroes of Modern Missions"; "Men of Mark in Modern Missions.")

Music. "The Son of God Goes Forth to War." No. 56.

Prayer.

Once again, dear Lord, we pray
For the children far away,
Who have never even heard
Jesus' name, our sweetest word.

Little lips that thou hast made,
'Neath the far-off temple's shade,
Give to gods of wood and stone
Praise that should be all thy own.

Little hands whose wondrous skill
 Thou hast given to do thy will,
 Offerings bring, and serve with fear
 Gods that cannot see nor hear.

Teach them, O thou heavenly King,
 All their gifts and praise to bring
 To thy Son, who died to prove
 Thy forgiving, saving love.

(Have a number of children carrying the flags of foreign countries march to the platform, with the American and Christian flags elevated or crossed in center. While they stand thus grouped let the other children in the room sing.)

Music. "Onward, Christian Soldiers." No. 49.

(Children on platform repeat):

There is no king but Jesus:
 The red, the black, the brown,
 The yellow, and the white man
 Shall tender him the crown.
 Sound forth the gospel message,
 Resounding let it ring;
 The whole round world shall conquered be
 For Christ our King.

Teacher. "Blessing, and honor, and glory, and power be unto him that sitteth upon the throne, and unto the Lamb for ever and ever."

Class. "Blessed be his glorious name forever; and let the whole earth be filled with his glory; amen, and amen."

Music. "Gloria Patria."

Glory be to the Father, and | to the | Son, || and | to the | Ho-ly | Ghost;
 As it was in the beginning, is now, and | ev-er | shall be, || world | without | end. A- | men.

PROMOTION DAY

Second Year

Program outline. God the Father, and his helpers in the Old Testament; Jesus, Son of God, and his helpers in the New Testament; as found in Lessons V to VII, IX, X, XVII to XX, XXIV to XXVI, XXXI to XXXIII.

Music. "O Lord, so Great and Powerful." No. 26.

Prayer.

Teacher. How many books are there in the Old Testament?

Class. There are thirty-nine books in the Old Testament.

Teacher. We are to review some of the year's work to-day. Can you tell the name of the first book in the Old Testament, and what we study in it?

Recitation.

Genesis is first in order	Adam, Eve, Cain, and Abel;
Of the books that form the Bible;	Of the deluge, Noah, and Abram;
There we read about creation,	Joseph in the land of Egypt.

Teacher. One of God's best helpers was Moses. Can you tell in what book we study about him and something of the work he did?

Recitation.

Exodus is next in order,	Giving laws and sacrifices,
And relates about the journey	And the wanderings in the desert.
To the promised land of Canaan;	Deuteronomy comes after,
Moses, and the Ten Commandments.	And repeats God's commandments,
Leviticus and Numbers follow,	Ending with the death of Moses.

Teacher. Moses did a splendid work for God; he died on Mount Nebo. Suppose he had refused to obey God, what would have been the result?

Recitation.

Had Moses failed to go; had God
Granted his prayer, there would have been
For him no leadership to win;
No pillared fire; no magic rod;
No wonders in the Land of Zin;
No smiting of the sea; no tears
Ecstatic shed on Sinai's steep;
No Nebo, with God to keep
His burial; only forty years
Of desert, watching with his sheep.

Teacher. After Moses' death, who led the children of Israel into the land of Canaan? In what book do we study about him, and who ruled after his death?

Recitation. Joshua is next in order,
Telling us of Canaan conquered;
Judges then controlled the people.

Music. "Lord, Thy Glory Fills the Heaven." No. 1.

Teacher. Samuel was one of the judges; how did God call him, and how did he obey?

Recitation. It was night in the temple,
All the lamps burning low,
When a voice called to Samuel,
In the long, long ago;
'Twas our Father in heaven
Spoke in tones soft and clear,
And the child heard and answered:
"Speak, Lord, for I hear." —E. E. Hewitt.

Teacher. What lesson can we learn from Samuel?

Class. "I will hear what God the Lord will speak."

Teacher. What was Samuel's greatest work?

Class. The anointing of David to be king was Samuel's greatest work.

Teacher. Long after Samuel's time the children of Israel were taken into captivity to Babylon. Who wanted to return to Jerusalem, and what great work was done there?

Recitation. Ezra led God's people forward
From captivity in Babylon;
Nehemiah built the city
And the walls with much trouble.

Teacher. Then came a day of praise and thanksgiving. Can you tell us about it?

Recitation. "Ezra stood upon a pulpit of wood, and opened the book in the sight of all the people."

Class. "When he opened the book, all the people stood up." (Entire class may stand when that part of the verse is recited.)

Teacher. Ezra blessed Jehovah the great God, and all the people answered.
Amen!") For what can we give thanks?

Sing to tune of "Yield Not to Temptation." No. 35.

Praise God for the Bible,
Which comes like a friend
To counsel, to comfort,
To guide, and defend;
Praise God for the Bible,
Far better than gold,
The words of sure promise
Its pages unfold.

Chorus.

Praise God for the Bible,
Praise God for the Bible,
Praise God for the Bible,
Given to us long ago.

Teacher. God had a very great helper in Daniel, who was taken to Babylon.
In what did Daniel believe?

Class. Daniel believed in prayer.

Teacher. What happened to Daniel when he refused to stop praying to God?

Class. Daniel was thrown into the den of lions.

Teacher. What did the king say to Daniel before he was cast into the den of lions?

Class. "Thy God whom thou servest continually, he will deliver thee."

Teacher. Daniel was not afraid to do right. What is the call that comes to us?

Recitation.

Down the corridor of ages,
Rings the bugle-note along,
Where the battle ever rages,
Calling for the young and strong.
Strong to feel the world's great need;
Strong to hate an evil deed;
Strong to build an honest name;
Strong for all things in His name.

Music. "Father, lead me day by day."

Father, lead me day by day,
Ever in thine own sweet way;
Teach me to be pure and true,

Show me what I ought to do.
When I'm tempted to do wrong,
Make me steadfast, pure, and strong.

Teacher. These men and others helped God in his desire to make the world better. Finally, whom did God send to us that all might be saved?

Class. God sent Jesus of Nazareth, who went about doing good.

Teacher. Jesus helped four fishermen who had fished all night and were discouraged. What did Jesus tell them to do, and what lesson can we learn?

Recitation.

Trust to your nets and not to your skill,
Trust to the royal Master's will;
Lay down the nets this day, this hour,
For the word of a king is a word of power;
And the King's own word comes over the sea,
Let down your nets for a draught from me.

Teacher. What help did Jesus give to Bartimeus?

Recitation.

Blind Bartimeus at the gates
Of Jericho in darkness waits;
He hears the crowd; he hears a breath
Say, "It is Christ of Nazareth!"
And calls, in tones of agony,
"Jesus, have mercy upon me!"

The thronging multitudes increase;
"Blind Bartimeus, hold thy peace!"
But still, above the noisy crowd,
The beggar's cry is shrill and loud;
Until they say, "He calleth thee!
Take hope, arise, he calleth thee."

Then saith the Christ, as silent stands
The crowd, "What wilt thou at my hands?"
The man replies: "Oh, give me light!
Rabbi, restore the blind man's sight!"
And Jesus answers, "Come to me:
Thy childlike faith hath saved thee."

Ye that have eyes, yet cannot see,
In darkness and in misery
Recall those mighty voices three:
"Jesus, have mercy upon me!"
"Take hope, arise, and come to me!"
"Thy childlike faith hath saved thee."

—Longfellow.

Teacher. How many disciples did Jesus have?

Class. Jesus had twelve disciples.

Teacher. What did Jesus say to the disciples when he sent them out to do his work?

Recitation.

To twelve who followed Christ
And heard his word,
"Go teach," he said, "that all
May know the Lord."

Teacher. How did Jesus show his love for little children?

Recitation.

He smiled as he stretched out his arms in glad welcome,
While little ones hastened to press 'round his knee,
While he laid his kind hand on each little forehead,
Saying, "Suffer little children to come unto me."

He loved them e'en then, though his heart had much sadness,
He loveth them still in their innocent glee;
And still does he utter those words of sweet welcome,
" Oh, suffer the children to come unto me.
Send them not from my presence, the children; I love them,
And they shall be merry and joyous and free;
But bring them where blessings from heaven are dropping,
Oh, suffer the children to come unto me."

Teacher. What young lad helped Jesus?

Recitation; or music, " Lord, When to Thee a Little Lad." No. 18.

What if the little Jewish lad,
That summer day, had failed to go
Down to the lake, because he had
So small a store of loaves to show?
But to the lakeside forth he went,
Bearing the scant supply he had;
And Jesus, with his eyes intent
Through all the crowds, beheld the lad;
And saw the loaves and blest them. Then
Beneath his hand the marvel grew;
He brake and blest, and broke again,
The loaves were neither small nor few;
For, as we know, it came to pass
That hungry thousands there were fed,
While sitting on the fresh green grass,
From that one basketful of bread.

Teacher. How did Jesus help the disciples once in a time of storm?

Recitation.

The disciples, with Jesus their Lord,
On the sea in a vessel were tossed;
As the winds loudly blew, and the waves rolled,
Much they feared that all would be lost.
Soon the water rushed into the boat;
For the Master all eagerly look;
On a pillow they find him asleep—
Had the dear Lord his children forsook?

Ah, no; while he slept, he still thought
 Of their danger and bitter distress;
 For his merciful eyes slumber not,
 But are watching his children to bless.
 To their prayers his ears are inclined;
 To the winds and the waves he's spoken,
 "Peace! be still!" and soon hushed is the wind,
 And the strength of the waves is broken.

Teacher. Sad news came one day to Jesus. A little maid was very ill, and the father sent for Jesus to come to see her.

Recitation.

Hark! 'tis a father crying, And this is what he saith: "My little daughter's lying Just at the point of death."	The Saviour soon consented To come and heal the maid; Nor was he e'en prevented By hearing she was dead.
--	---

He found the people weeping
 Because her breath was gone;
 And when he said, "She's sleeping,"
 They laughed him to scorn.

The Lord no sinful mocker, Would suffer to remain; Then by the hand he took her, And bade her rise again.	Ah! see the maid arising, According to his word; Does not the deed surprising Show Jesus to be Lord?
--	---

Teacher. What are the marching orders we have then, in summing up the lessons of the year?

Recitation.

Ready to act when His call comes clear;
 Ready to answer him, "I am here";
 Ready to march when he bids you come;
 Ready to go when he calls, "Come home."

Remarks by pastor or superintendent; distribution of certificates of promotion.

Prayer by entire class.

Jesus, help us to remember
 These sweet lessons from thy word;
 Write upon our hearts forever
 Truths that we this day have heard.

Music. "Jesus, King of Glory." No. 42.

Third Year

Program outline. Seeking to know and do God's will; choosing the right; the coming of God's Son to do his will; Jesus revealing the Father's love; Jesus returns to the Father; two messengers of Jesus doing God's will; the two great commandments; as found in Lessons I to VII; XLIX, L; XV to XVII, XX, XXV to XXVIII; XXX to XXXVIII; LII.

Music. "Come, little children."

The image shows a musical score for the hymn "Come, little children." It consists of four staves of music. The first two staves are the first system, and the last two are the second system. The music is written in a 2/4 time signature with a key signature of one flat (B-flat). The melody is in the treble clef, and the accompaniment is in the bass clef. The piece concludes with a double bar line.

Come, little children; come and raise Your voice with one accord.	Sing of the wonders of his love, Who with his own right arm
Come, sing in joyful songs of praise The glories of our Lord.	Upholds and keeps you hour by hour, And shields from every harm.

Prayer.

Teacher. In the first two years of our graded work we studied about many characters in the Old and New Testaments. Last year we learned about the judges who ruled Israel. In this year's work we learned of Israel as a kingdom, with Saul as the first king. Whom did Jehovah choose as his successor?

Recitation.

Good David, whose psalms have so often been sung,
At first was not noble nor grand,
But only a shepherd boy when he was young,
Though afterward king of the land.

He tended his flocks in the pasture by day,
And kept them in safety by night;
And though a poor shepherd, he did not delay
To do what was holy and right.

For while he sat watching his sheep in the fold,
To guard them from danger abroad,
It then was his greatest delight, we are told,
To think on the works of the Lord.

When ready for battle Goliath appeared,
Young David first offered to go;
He knew that his God, whom he trusted and feared,
Would help him to conquer the foe.

In war and in fighting he had not been skilled,
Yet ventured to meet him alone;
And this mighty giant he presently killed
With only a sling and a stone.

Teacher. David did a great work, but had many hard experiences. What caused his troubles?

Class. Saul was jealous of him, and tried to kill him, and David had to hide.

Teacher. Who became David's best friend?

Class. "Jonathan, the son of Saul, truly loved David."

Teacher. David and his men many times suffered for food; they never stole; they tried to help the farmers save their sheep. Can you tell the name of one man who was rich whom David helped?

Class. Nabal was the man, and Abigail was his wife.

Teacher. What happened?

Class. When Nabal sheared his sheep he made a great feast, but forgot what David had done for him.

First child. David sent ten young men to ask Nabal for food.

Second child. Nabal said: "Who is David? Shall I take my bread, and water, and the flesh I have killed, and give to him?"

Third child. Then David was angry, and planned to kill Nabal.

Fourth child. But one of the servants told Abigail, who went to David with bread and wine and raisins and cake.

All. "David said, Blessed be Jehovah the God of Israel, who sent thee this day to meet me."

Teacher. What would you call Abigail?

Class. Abigail was a "peacemaker."

Teacher. After David became king, what did he plan to do?

Class. David planned to build a temple for worship.

Teacher. What did David say?

All. "Enter into his gates with thanksgiving, and into his courts with praise."

Music. "We love thy house, O God."

We love thy house, O God,
 Wherein thy children meet;
 For thou, O Lord of Hosts, art there,
 Thy little flock to greet.

Teacher. Long afterward, who chose to do the right thing always?

All. Daniel and his three friends chose the right.

Teacher. Who made an image of gold, and what did he order?

Class. Nebuchadnezzar made an image of gold and ordered all to worship it.

Teacher. Who disobeyed, and what followed?

Class. The king cast them into a fiery furnace.

Teacher. What fourth figure appeared in the flames?

Class. A figure like the Son of God.

Teacher. God showed his love for these three young men; how has he shown his love to us?

Class. He sent Jesus Christ to be our Saviour.

P R I M A R Y T E A C H E R S ' M A N U A L

Teacher. We have heard of Abigail, the peacemaker. Jesus preached a sermon in which he referred to the peacemaker. What do we call that part of the Sermon on the Mount?

Class. That part of the Sermon on the Mount is called the Beatitudes.

(Just here have those who are to be promoted recite the Beatitudes. Some may prefer to sing only the chorus of this hymn.)

Music. "Angry Words." No. 16.

Teacher. Jesus came to show us the Father's love. What help did he give to a sick man?

Recitation.

Beside the pool of Bethesda, I hear a mournful cry:	"No help, no hope is offered To one so weak as I."
--	---

Class. "Jesus said unto him, Arise, take up thy bed, and walk."

Teacher. Jesus had many busy days; especially one at Capernaum. What did he do?

Recitation.

He the sick to health restored; To the poor he preached the word;	Even children had a share Of his tender love and care.
--	---

Teacher. Jesus knew that the Father wanted us to go to him for help. What prayer did he teach us?

Music. "Our Father, who art in heaven."

Our Father, who art in heaven, hal - lowed be Thy name.
Give us this day our dai - ly bread.
And lead us not into temptation, but de - liv - er us from evil:

Thy kingdom come, Thy will be done in earth as it is in heav'n.
And forgive us our debts, as we for - give our debtors.
For Thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, for - ever, A - men.

Teacher. God sent Jesus to save us; just before his death, where did he meet the disciples, and what lesson can we learn from it?

Recitation.

When the sad hour was almost come
That Jesus must depart,
He gathered in an upper room
Those nearest to his heart.

Beside the board again he sat,
And thus expressed his mind:
"If I, your Lord, upon you wait,
Oh, should not you be kind?"

Ah, great was their astonishment,
When, rising from his seat,
Upon the floor he lowly bent
To wash his servants' feet.

"Oh, let the love that I have shown,
By you remembered be;
And by your love let it be known
That you belong to me."

Music. "I love them that love me."

The image shows a musical score for the song "I love them that love me." It consists of two staves: a treble clef staff on top and a bass clef staff on the bottom. The melody is written in the treble clef, and the accompaniment is in the bass clef. The lyrics are written below the treble clef staff. The music is in a simple, hymn-like style with a key signature of one flat (B-flat) and a 4/4 time signature. The lyrics are: "I love them that love me, and they that seek me ear - ly shall find me."

Teacher. Jesus was in the tomb only a short time, when he arose. How long was it before his ascension?

Class. Jesus came to the disciples during forty days, until he ascended into heaven.

Teacher. We are often anxious to know about heaven. Will one of you tell us the different ideas some young people have of heaven?

Recitation.

The lesson hour was nearly past,
When I asked of my scholars seven,
"Now tell me, each one, please, in turn,
What sort of a place is heaven?"

"Oh, meadows, flowers, and lovely trees";
Cried poor little North Street Kitty;
While Dorothy, fresh from country lanes,
Was sure it was a "great big city!"

Bessie, it seemed, had never thought
 Of the home beyond the river;
 She simply took each perfect gift,
 And trusted the loving Giver.

Then up spoke Edith, tall and fair—
 Her voice was clear and ringing
 As she led in the Easter anthem choir—
 "In heaven they're always singing."

To Esther, clad in richest furs,
 'Twas a place for "outdoor playing";
 But Bridget drew her thin shawl close,
 For "warmth and food" she was praying.

The desk-bell rang. But one child left,
 My sober, thoughtful Florry,
 "Why, heaven just seems to me a place—
 A place—where you're never sorry."

Teacher. During Jesus' life he called Peter to do special messenger work for him. Tell us something about Peter.

Class. Peter was a fisherman; he left his work and followed Jesus. Peter tried to walk on the water to Jesus, but his faith failed. Peter denied Jesus.

Recitation.

When Peter sat within the hall,	His sorrowing Master turned his head,
To see what should his Lord befall,	And by his looks he sweetly said:
He said he never knew the man,	"Does Peter say he knows me not?"
And e'en to curse and swear began.	Has Peter then my love forgot?"
	— Psalm of Day.

Teacher. Jesus forgave Peter, and he did his work bravely after that. What happened to him when he was in prison?

Recitation.

"Awake!" the angel cries; and from the hands
 Of wondering Peter fell the iron bands;
 The gates flew open of their own accord,
 And Peter is to liberty restored.

His guide he follows through the gloom of night:
 Where angels are, there needs no other light;
 The angel's gone, and Peter, left alone,
 Sees and admires the love that God has shown.

At yonder gate he knocks; thence prayer ascends,
On this sad night, from Peter's sorrowing friends;
With glad surprise the maiden hears his voice;
All round him flock, and with one heart rejoice.

Teacher. Peter the fisherman became a great and good man, whom Christian people love and honor. To whom did Jesus appear after his death, because he wanted him as a special messenger?

Class. "Jesus appeared to Saul in a bright light, saying, Saul, Saul, why persecutest thou me?"

Teacher. To what was Saul's name changed?

Class. Saul's name was changed to Paul; he is the first missionary named in the New Testament.

Teacher. Ought we to be discouraged if we cannot do such great work as Paul did?

Recitation.

If you cannot speak like angels,
If you cannot preach like Paul,
Try to help some weak one near you;
Tell how Jesus died for all.

Teacher. We come now to the last lesson in our primary grade. Can you tell us what it is?

Class. "The two great commandments."

Teacher. What are these commandments?

Class. Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy mind. Thou shalt love thy neighbor as thyself.

Teacher. Who gave these commandments?

Class. Jesus Christ, the Son of God.

Music. "The Two Commandments." No. 38.

Announcement, by teacher, of those who have done the best work in lesson study, and presentation of certificates.

Closing prayer. (A summary of the review.) Dear Jesus, help us to be loving and true; keep us from angry words; help us to be strong and brave and kind to all; help us to honor God and to help the weak; give us the missionary spirit; grant that we may keep thy commandments, for thy dear sake. Amen.

Pointers for Teachers of the New Graded Lessons

1. Each of the series is progressive in plan and construction, and constitutes a distinct system easily comprehended and applied.

2. The issuance of the several series in quarterly parts was not the original purpose, but became a necessity because of the shortness of time available for preparation of the complete work of the year in book form; a volume for each series will be the plan followed later.

3. Subscriptions for the teacher's book should, in every case, be made for a whole year, and not for a single quarterly issue. The first part of each year always contains important matter that is not, and will not be, repeated in any subsequent number, but which it is essential that every teacher should have, no matter when the new course may be started.

4. The course in each grade may be commenced at any quarter by starting with the lesson indicated for that quarter; but not in any case with any earlier lesson in the series. Any deviation from this fundamental rule will cause confusion and trouble.

5. Subscriptions for the pupils' papers for each grade should be made only as required by each class, and should correspond with the period of introduction of a given series.

There will be no difficulty in following any of the Graded Courses if the above simple plan is strictly followed.
